

BOOK WEEK — WEEK 5

READING IS MY SUPER POWER...

It's that time of year again...

Newbery Park will be hosting a variety of activities to celebrate Book Week.

SCHOLASTIC BOOK FAIR

There will be another 'Scholastic Book Fair' to be held in the Library at lunchtime & after school Tues 20th Aug to Fri 23rd Aug. This encourages the fun of reading and also gives students the chance to purchase books. There will be lots of great books at the fair so don't miss out! For every purchase you make you will receive a FREE bookmark & our Library will also receive new books from a percentage of books sold.

BEDTIME STORIES

Bedtime Stories are back! They will be held in the Library on Wednesday evening 21st August between 6:00 - 6:45pm. Everyone welcome! There will be storytelling by guest storytellers and Milo & biscuits to share. Wear your favourite pjs & bring along your teddy & pillow.

Parents are required to stay and supervise own children.

PUBLIC LIBRARY VISIT

On Thursday 22nd August between 9:30am & 11am Rooms 1 & 3 are very lucky to have Anne visiting from the Millicent Public Library. Anne will be sharing a story from one of the 'Book Week' books with each class and then they will complete an activity from the book.

Hopefully they will be sharing some of their work with us at our assembly.

BOOK WEEK ASSEMBLY

Our 'Book Week' whole school assembly will be on Friday 23rd August at 9:15am in the Gym. All parents, grandparents and caregivers are invited to come along.

- Students to share their 'Book Week' learning
- 'Favourite Book Character' dress-up parade
- Books presented to families of Newbery Park with new siblings
- Jan Procter Memorial Award - Presented by Mayor of Millicent
- Cutting of 'Book Week' cake - by the winner of Jan Procter award

Hope to see you there... Helen P
